Overview

Central Western Bhutan Tour is a rich ancient cultural heritage with the Himalayas range of Bhutan.

Western and Central Bhutan Tour offers a chance to experience the one-of-a-kind traditions and culture of Bhutan's western and focal valleys. Western and central Bhutan is divided by the north-south running Black Mountain range.

The part of the Central Western Bhutan Tour is known for its spectacular scenic beauty; the area is filled with rice paddies and orchards. Western Bhutan also consists of high passes such as Cheli La (3988m), Dochu La (3050m), and Pele La (3300m), from where we get a spectacular view of the mountains. Likewise, Central Bhutan also has fantastic natural beauty occupied by miles of alpine and sub-tropical dense forests. It is famous for its buckwheat and apple production, substantial stone houses, and beautiful monasteries.

Center Western Bhutan Tours offers to take you around impressive monasteries, unique architecture, ancient traditions, rich, colorful culture, and a wide variety of nature and wildlife. The main attractions of the tour include Rimping Dzong, Ta Dzong Museum, Taktsang Monastery (Tiger's Nest) in the beautiful Paro Valley, 12th-century Changangkha Temple, and The National Memorial Chorten. In Western Bhutan, you will meet the Drukpa people and travel around Haa Valley, Paro Valley, Thimphu, Punakha Valley, Wangdue Phodrang, and Phobjikha Valley. The Central Western Bhutan Tour includes visiting the broad valley of Bumthang (the Cultural Heartland of Bhutan) and the picturesque Trongsa Dzong. During this tour, you will experience the unique Bhutanese culture and tradition.

Best Time For Central Western Bhutan Tour

The ideal time to go for a tour of Central Western Bhutan is during the spring and fall seasons which are from March to May and September to November respectively. During spring, you can witness the landscapes blooming with vibrant flora and enjoy pleasant temperatures. Autumn offers clear skies, stunning views of the Himalayas, and cultural festivals like the Thimphu Tshechu. Exploring the cultural gems of central western Bhutan, including Thimphu, Punakha, and Wangdue Phodrang during these months provides an ideal climate. Summer brings monsoon rains while winter can be cold, especially at higher altitudes. Therefore, planning your visit during spring or fall ensures a delightful experience with favorable weather conditions.

Day 01

Arrival in Paro (2200m)

We catch a flight to Paro, Bhutan, from Kathmandu and enjoy the scenic view throughout the flight. We meet our local tour guide and take a short drive moving alongside the Thimphu River towards Thimphu (Bhutan's capital). En route, we will visit the National Museum in Paro valley. Overnight in Thimphu.

Day 02

Thimphu Sightseeing

Today we stroll around the colourful market of Thimphu and then visit the National Memorial Chorten, the National Library, the National Painting School, the Changangkha Temple, the textile museum, the traditional paper-making factory, the Tashicho Dzong monastery, Zangdopelri temple, and the mini zoo to see Takin. Overnight at a hotel in Thimphu.

Day 03

Drive from Thimphu to Punakha

We take about 3 hour's drive to reach Punakha, leaving Thimphu behind via Dochula Pass, where we can get a mesmerizing view of the snow-capped peaks of Bhutan. We continue our drive to Punakha, relishing the countryside view. After checking into the hotel, we go to visit Punakha Dzong—the former winter capital of Bhutan—which is built between two rivers, “Phochu” (Male River) and “Mochu” (Female River). We take a short hike to Chhi-Med Lhakhang temple dedicated to Bhutan's foremost saint, Lama Drukpa Kuenley, also known as the “divine madman”. Overnight in Hotel.

Day 04

Drive from Punakha to Paro

After breakfast, we drive back to Paro, relishing the scenic view of the eastern Himalayan range and the unique landscape throughout the drive. Upon arriving, we explore the town of Paro and visit the local handicraft shops to buy souvenirs to take back home. Overnight at a hotel in Paro.

Day 05

Day Excursion to Haa valley

Today we take a short drive to Haa Valley. The road takes us through pine and rhododendron forests before arriving at Chele-la pass (3988m), from where we can get the extraordinary view of Mt. Chomolhari (7326m) and Mt. Jichu Drake (6662m). After spending quality time, we continue our remaining 1-hour drive to Haa valley. We visit Lhakhang Karpo Monastery (the white temple) and Lhakhang Nagpo (the black temple). We drive back to Paro for an overnight stay.

Day 06

Visit Tiger's Nest (Taktsang Palphug Monastery)

After breakfast, we take a short drive to Paro Hiking point. We start our hike to Tiger's Nest, also known as Taktshang Monastery, located 300m above the Paro valley. It is believed to be a spot where Guru Rinpoche arrived on the back of the Tigress and meditated for three months. Taktsang Monastery is one of the 10th holiest sites in the Buddhist world. We hike back and drive to Paro. Overnight in Hotel.

Day 07

Departure

We will drive you back to the Paro International Airport in time for your final departure.

Why US

MyEverestTrip is a Nepalese Travel and Trekking Agency based in Kathmandu. We have been operating in different trekking regions for over a decade, traveling with hundreds of travelers worldwide.

With the pure intention to bring trekkers to Nepal's safety and comfort, we have an entire team of travel planners, guides, and porters. We also have connections to hotels and restaurant lines all over Nepal to ensure that our trekkers get the best possible facilities.

So, here is the reason why you should travel with MyEverestTrip.

Customize Your Itinerary:

We have designed a well-planned Itinerary for all travel destinations around Nepal. However, this Itinerary is customizable as per the needs and requests of our trekkers. Just let us know when and how long you are staying so we can arrange the rest.

Our Expert Guide:

Although all travel agencies claim to have a good guide, many are not informed about the place you are traveling to. However, MyEverestTrip has its licensed guide in Nepal. They have been working in this field for over three decades, collecting all the information about the place/ culture and learning to keep the travelers safe. Also, our guide is good at the English language. We can even hire a guide who can speak Chinese and other European languages for trekking in Nepal upon special request.

Fair and reasonable Cost:

MyEverestTrip has been known for its very economic trek packages in Nepal. You can compare the price we offer with any other travel agency in Nepal and only book with us if you are satisfied with our cost. We try to include all needed expenses during the tour so that you will not be overwhelmed with hidden expenses after the packages are booked.

Your safety is our priority:

Obviously, the safety of our trekkers and team is the utmost priority of MyEverestTrip. Our guide and porters who shall accompany you for the trip will have their insurance. We also encourage Travel insurance for our trekkers. Our treks and trips have been so designed that you only walk an appropriate distance. In any case of emergency, you will always have our back.

Responsible and Eco-Friendly

MyEverestTrip operates with the belief in responsible tourism. This includes

- We are transparent about the services covered on the trip. There shall be no hidden cost (informed in advance if there's any)
- We cover all the places promised before the trek (the trend of skipping places once you book the package has to be discouraged).
- All our guides and porters are above 18yrs. We highly discourage child labor in the tourism industry
- We do not leave any wastage behind on the trekking routes. We either dispose of the waste appropriately or carry it back with us and send it to the municipality
- We do not engage in any activities that affect the people in the trek places of Nepal where we stay.
