Trip Overview

Nagarkot Day Hiking trip is the most popular hiking route near Kathmandu. The trip includes the most popular Himalayan views, pine forests, terraces, the typical Newari Villages, mixed culture, Lush valleys, and more. Nagarkot day hiking trip offers a unique opportunity to explore the myriad wonders of nature, rural Nepal, and the awe-inspiring majesty and beauty of the dramatic mountain range as an amazing life experience. Nagarkot is on the edge of the valley and offers superb views of the mountains such as Mt. Everest (8848m), Dorje Lakpa (6988m), Lantang Lirung (7219m), Gauri Shanker (7145m), Ganesh Himal (6704m), as well as the Kathmandu Valley.

Nagarkot day hiking tour starts from Changunarayan after a 1-hour drive from Kathmandu. Nagarkot day hiking trip heads up from Chagunarayan Telkot along a ridge to the temple of Changunarayan with views of Sankhu village to the right and Bhaktapur to the left. Changunarayan is situated at the end of a long ridge that runs well into the valley. It is said to have been built in 323 AD by King Hari Datta Varma. The temple, famous for its architecture is richly decorated with sculptures and carvings. It is said to be the oldest temple in the valley. Chagunaryan to Nagarkot day hiking trip takes about three and a half hours. Rest and excursions can be had around Nagarkot, then sunset views with a private vehicle back to Kathmandu.
